RUSSIANS SMASH FOE'S LINES; TEUTONS THROWN BACK ACROSS STRYPA; 6300 MORE CAPTURED

Galician Offensive Continued With Growing Intensity—20 Guns and Much War Material Fall to Victorious Slavs

Full Count of Prisoners Expected to Show Total in Excess of 19,000—Enemy Flanked at Important Points on Lemberg Line

The great Russian offensive on the Galician front, which was begun with so much success on Sunday, is being continued with increasing power and intensity. The Russians have flung the Austro-German divisions back across the Little Strypa River, have penetrated three lines of trenches, flanking the enemy at several important points and have captured 6300 more prisoners, twenty-one guns and much other booty.

The forward movement of the Russians against Lemberg is extending to other points along the line and is meeting with general success, Petrograd reports.

On the western front the Germans last night launched new attacks at French positions south of Laon and in the Verdun sector, but won no ground, Paris reports.

On the British front the fighting was limited to raids.

London expects that with the Russian armies back in the fighting, simultaneous offensives will be inaugurated by the Allies on all fronts, putting an end to Hindenburg's favorite strategy of shifting troops from one front to another to meet an expected attack.

SLAVS IN VICTORIOUS ADVANCE WIN VILLAGES AND HEIGHTS

PETROGRAD, July 3.—Russia's offensive today forced the enemy back across the Little Strypa River, in Galicia, penetrated three lines of enemy trenches and took 6300 additional prisoners.

The War Office announcement indicated evening gains everywhere, including the position of Presov and the village and heights southwest of Zborov and Kordubitz. Twenty-one guns and six machine guns have been captured.

The enemy retired across the Little Strypa, the official statement concluded.

The two cities mentioned, Zborov and Kordubitz, are in the same sector in which Brusiloff made his initial drive. A continuation of the offensive here was taken in hand by the Russian government, for Kerensky and for the soldiers. Cossack speakers from the Cossack congress started a tour of all factories, addressing workmen and urging them to help in Russia's strenuous effort.

The temper of the crowds in Petrograd was illustrated by the rough treatment accorded four street orators who attempted to address the people against the Russian offensive. The speakers were dragged down and severely beaten by the crowd. Then they were arrested as spies.

U. S. Commander Says Premature Announcement Jeopardized Lives of Thousands

By HENRI BAZIN
Special Correspondent of the Evening Ledger in France.

PARIS, July 3.—General Pershing, commander of the American troops in France, informed me today that he would undertake a probe of the premature report published by a news organization of the landing of the first contingent of American troops in France, thus jeopardizing the lives of the thousands of men who were still afloat. He complimented the American correspondents for the work they are doing in maintaining connections between the Sammies and the folks at home and introducing the soldiers to the French public.

I have been appointed one of three American correspondents to be attached permanently to the French army, with the right of moving about freely from camp to any part of the battlefield.

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 3.—The American Chamber of Commerce is "on the job." Believing that the actual introduction of American-made goods into the Brazilian market and the establishment of Brazilian goods in the American market works to the practical strengthening of trade relations between the two countries, the American Chamber in this city has effected an agreement with the Commercial League of Brazil for the exchange and disposition of the products of both countries.

By the terms of the agreement the American chamber proposes to find agents or buyers for all products offered to the American markets by members or through the Commercial League of Brazil. In return the league promises to provide the same outlet for American goods for which there is a demand in the Brazilian markets. Both organizations will work through their respective memberships and affiliations in their respective countries.

An American manufacturer or exporter desiring to place his goods in Brazil may do so through the American chamber, who will furnish the necessary information as to procedures and methods, and by the cooperation of the Commercial League will arrange agents and merchants to handle the goods.

Clear and Cool Fourth, Says Forecaster Bliss

TOMORROW—the Fourth—will be clear, despite the ominous-looking dark sky and even the rain-forecaster Bliss, of the Weather Bureau, in a special forecast for the EVENING LEDGER, said that he did not see how the day could be otherwise than clear and pleasant, according to all indications. The forecast follows: For Philadelphia and vicinity—Fair and cooler.

Temperature—Not expected to reach above the 80-mark.

Wind—Gentle, west and southwest.

In contradiction of the common belief that rain generally comes on the Fourth, Mr. Bliss said that in the last fifty years such has been the case at an average of one Fourth of July out of five. Last year it was fair. Also in 1915, 1914 and 1913.

New Jersey seashore resorts also will be favored with clear and pleasant weather, according to Forecaster Bliss.

No mail delivery tomorrow. Post-office and substations open until 11 a. m.

The meat drivers' and chauffeurs' strike situation is clearing today and the big packers' distributing and wholesale houses in Delaware avenue said there would be nothing left of the strike by the end of the week today.

When the men went out yesterday there was some difficulty and for hours the distribution of meat was seriously crippled. Now, however, deliveries are being made by express to all out-of-town points and the strike employees are handling the local distribution, according to the employers.

Twenty striking drivers went to the employers' today and asked for their jobs back, according to the employers. The men had had enough of the strike, they said.

The strikers conferred until early this morning at their headquarters, 413 North Ninth street. Richard Tener, their business agent, urged them not to give in.

SENATE GETS TAX BILL; BIG INCOMES HIT

Measure Planned to Raise $1,670,000,000 Annually Reported in Upper House

BOND ISSUE FOR DEFICIT

Senate Committee's Method of Taxing Excess Profits

TWELVE per cent to be taken of excess profits of 15 per cent. Thirty per cent of excess profits of 75 per cent. Thirty-five per cent of those up to 100 per cent. Forty per cent to be taxed on excess profits of between 150 and 250 per cent. Forty-five per cent on those between 200 and 250 per cent. Fifty per cent on those above 250 per cent.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The biggest revenue bill in the nation's history, calculated to produce $1,670,000,000 annually for war expenses, was reported favorably to the Senate shortly after the upper house convened today. The enormous amount it is expected to raise is still several hundred million short of this year's estimated share of the war budget, but the deficit will be met with a bond issue after a more accurate calculation can be made by the War and Navy Departments.

Swollen incomes, excess war profits and liquor and tobacco are the chief sources of income. These three sources must contribute $1,237,000,000 of the $1,670,000,000 to be raised by the bill. Miscellaneous sources will be taxed to an extent large enough to make up the difference.

The excess profits tax ranges from 12 per cent to 50 per cent.

Here is a table of the various sources of taxation and the revenue, in addition to present levies, they are expected to yield annually:

Income, $322,000,000.
Excess profits, $232,000,000.
Tobacco and alcohol, $242,000,000.
Freight transportation, $77,500,000.
Telephone and telegrams, $7,000,000.
Passenger transportation, $37,500,000.
Post office, $10,000,000.
Seals and berths, $2,500,000.
Telegrams and telegrams, $7,000,000.
Publications, $7,500,000.
Automobiles, $10,000,000.
Sporting goods, $800,000.
Pleasure boats, $200,000.
Perfumes and cosmetics, $1,700,000.
Proprietary medicines, $3,400,000.
Cameras, $500,000.
Admissions, $25,000,000.
Schedule A, including playing cards, $30,000,000.
Tea, coffee, sugar, etc., $86,000,000.
Virgin Islands products, $200,000.
Fire insurance, $100,000,000.
Second-class mails, $8,000,000.

The measure, as reported by the committee, only slightly resembles the bill as passed by the House. For more than six weeks the finance committee has been studying the measure to the most careful consideration, tearing it to shreds and completely re-drafting it. There is a probability that the measure will be still further amended before its final passage by the Senate, and promise is held forth that it will provide a bitter battle when it goes back to the House.

The bill was submitted to the Senate with the endorsement of twelve of the seven members of the finance committee, Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, believes that the entire war burden ought to be placed upon excess profits, big incomes and liquor and tobacco. In this contention he has been supported by Senators Gore, of Oklahoma, and Thomas, of Colorado. He expects to make a fight on the Senate floor for amendment of the bill along lines of his plan.

U. S. TROOPS REACH PARIS FOR 'FOURTH'

Battalion of Pershing's Men Greeted Enthusiastically by Crowd at Station

QUARTERED IN PALACE

PARIS, July 3.—A battalion of American troops arrived here from their camp today to take part in the great Fourth of July celebration tomorrow. The celebration will be the most pretentious and kind ever held in Europe. The American troops are quartered in the Grand Palais and will march through the streets in tomorrow's great parade.

Brant White, American Minister to Belgium, will be the orator of the day at Napoleon's tomb. A French military band is ready to serenade General John J. Pershing, the American commander, on his arrival here tomorrow morning. Pershing will place a wreath on the tomb of Lafayette as part of the Independence Day program. This will be followed by a luncheon at which distinguished Frenchmen and Americans will speak. American Ambassador Sharp and members of the embassy staff, President Polk and members of the French Cabinet and men of note in French political and literary life will attend.

Independence Day will also be observed, on a grand scale, in Rome and Genoa. The American troops arrived at the Anserlits station at 7:40 o'clock this morning. They were greeted by representatives of the French and American armies. Crowds cheered the soldiers as they marched to the Grand Palais behind a band that played "Dixie," "Yankee Doodle" and "Marching Through Georgia." French girls held the troops with flowers from the balconies of the houses.

SAMMIES WORK HARD; PREPARE FOR BATTLE

A FRENCH PORT, July 2 (delayed). Envid of all their comrades, a certain battalion of General Pershing's Sammies were putting an extra finish shine on their guns and bayonets and an added brushing to their uniforms today as they prepared for a friendly invasion of Paris. They were to be the center of the French capital's celebration of the glorious "Fourth."

But those left behind took it philosophically.

THREE NEGROES DIE IN NEW DAY OF RACE CLASH

Torch Again Applied to 'District' in East St. Louis

MOB MOVES ON CITY

East St. Louis Race Riot: Its Causes and Results

PRINCIPAL features of the East St. Louis race rioting, probably the most disastrous in the history of the nation, are:

CAUSES—

Conflict between white labor organizations and the large mass of imported negro labor from the South.

Killing by the negroes, in the course of earlier rioting, of two white men.

RESULTS—

Death of at least seventy-five negroes, with the probability of many more fatalities in the flames.

Burning of six blocks in the negro section of the city.

Property loss conservatively estimated at $500,000.

City leaders ask martial law be declared.

Police unable to cope with situation; national guardsmen summoned; they did little better.

Rioting marked by extreme cruelty on the part of men, boys and girls; about 10,000 participating.

At least three of the negroes "strung up."

POSSIBILITIES—

Search under way for Dr. L. N. Bundy, negro dentist, supposed leader of the negro section of rioters, with strong probability of lynching following.

Indictment against many prominent citizens who participated in disorder.

Renewed minor riots today indicate another night of terror.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 3.

"Use drastic measures if necessary to stop the outrages at East St. Louis." This was the blanket order transmitted by Governor Lowden to Adjutant General Dickson at East St. Louis shortly before noon today.

"The city is under control. I expect no more serious rioting." This was the report given to Governor Lowden today by Adjutant General Dickson from East St. Louis.

There will be no decree of martial law for the present. The Governor said that this would weaken instead of strengthening the State's position, because it would deprive the military of the aid of the sheriff and police forces of East St. Louis.

EAST ST. LOUIS, July 3.

Three hundred armed negroes were reported marching on East St. Louis today, intending revenge for the wholesale slaughter of negroes by enraged whites last night. Colonel Tripp, in command of the guardsmen details, sent 100 soldiers to meet the host of blacks, ordered to shoot to kill. New riots broke out during the morning and several more houses were fired. Three negroes were killed. A score were injured during the fighting today. In this number were several women. In their blind fear, negroes fired upon national guardsmen who were rushing to the rescue when about fifty of the blacks were attacked in the levee district. Two negroes were injured and one man was wounded. A heavy detail of guardsmen took the band to the City Hall.

Twenty-five rounds of ammunition were distributed to militiamen on guard last night, with orders to "shoot to kill any more rioters."

GUARD REINFORCED

A Chicago company of guardsmen was reported to have arrived this morning, making thirteen companies here in all. At noon officials said the city was quiet and further rioting is not expected until tonight. As yet there has been no attempt at organized relief work by the Red Cross or other organizations. Many of the injured are being cared for at City Hall and police headquarters.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held shortly before noon it was agreed to telegraph Governor Lowden demanding martial law throughout the riot district by noon in event of a refusal they will appeal to President Wilson.

Twenty-three negroes and two white men are known dead and about fifty others are believed to have been killed during the rioting which has raged for twenty-four hours.

JOFFE EATS VIRGINIA HAM, MRS. WILSON'S GIFT

Pershing, Dinner Guest at Marshal's Home in Paris, With American Meat Chief Dish

PARIS, July 3.—A Virginia ham which Mrs. Woodrow Wilson sent to Mrs. Joffre was the principal feature of an informal home dinner at the Joffre home at which General Pershing was the guest last night. Mrs. Joffre acted as interpreter between the Marshal and General Pershing when Pershing's French proved inadequate.

When Marshal Joffre was in America Mr. Wilson learned at the White House dinner to the French mission that both "Papa" Joffre and his wife were fond of ham. So Mrs. Joffre acted as interpreter between the Marshal and General Pershing when Pershing's French proved inadequate.

The economist went to Washington for a talk with the War Secretary, Mr. Baker, said he would have the car sent here, though he was sorry to have to do so, because General Pershing needed a car and there seemed to be none to be had.

"Let him have my limousine," said Doctor MacFarland. "He must need it more than I do."

"I think he does," said Secretary Baker, in substance. "Thank you."

Tomorrow, Independence Day, there will be no issue of the Evening Ledger.
